DIFFERENCE between Turmeric & Curcumin

- The plant turmeric (Curcuma longa) is very well known in India
- The root is harvested, cleaned, dried, and powdered to be used as a spice (turmeric gives curry its beautiful golden yellow color) and as a medicine
- But, a typical turmeric root contains about 2-5% curcumin, so taking an unstandardized, powdered turmeric root product means that very large amounts would be required to get a beneficial amount of curcumin
- While turmeric is excellent when used as a spice, a curcumin extract is a better choice for specific health benefits
